

Lecture Series 2017

Lecture 1: Climate Action in New Administration

Date: Wed. Jan 25, 2017

Coordinator: David Kunhardt

Location: Corte Madera Community Center

Time: 7:00 to 9:00 pm

LECTURE OBJECTIVES:

- Learn about most effective action strategies for Greenhouse Gas mitigation
- What is the most promising method of communication with Congress and Administration
- Discuss the alternatives available for putting a price on Carbon
- Options for engaging the public
- Options for local action

AGENDA:

- 7:00 Welcoming Remarks – Ann Bauer, EFM Lecture Series Director
- 7:05 Overview of the Evening – David Kunhardt, EFM Board Vice President
- 7:10 The Need for Action on Climate at a Major Scale and what that action entails – Bruce Riordan, Director, Climate Readiness Institute at Berkeley
- 7:30 Q&A
- 7:35 Selection of the Best Means of Putting a Price on Carbon – Dr. Peter Joseph, Group Leader, Marin Chapter of Citizens Climate Lobby
- 8:10 Q&A
- 8:15 Guiding Marin to 100% Deep Green Energy - Sarah Loughran, EFM MC #43, and Member of the San Rafael Planning Commission
- 8:25 Panel of all Speakers Respond to Audience Questions
- 8:55 Closing Remarks
- 9:00 End